

A long-term home for enduring businesses.

The Ave Holdings acquires and grows essential service businesses with strong reputations, dedicated teams, and meaningful potential. We offer owners a thoughtful succession path, direct access to the decision-maker, and a flexible, dependable transaction process.

INVESTMENT FOCUS

Industries

Home and property services, specialty trades, recurring field services, and other durable service categories

Geography

Primarily the Southeast, with particular interest in Florida and Georgia

Size

Generally $1 million to $10 million in revenue, with consistent cash flow and responsible growth potential

WHAT WE VALUE

Strong foundation

A history of quality work, customer trust, and a respected local or regional brand

Committed people

A capable team, credible internal leaders, or systems that support a smooth leadership transition

Durable demand

Essential or recurring services with attractive long-term fundamentals

OUR APPROACH

01 Preserve what works Respect the culture, relationships, and reputation that made the business successful.	02 Invest for the long term Provide operational support and patient ownership without a predetermined exit timeline.	03 Grow with people Create opportunities for strong operators and employees to lead, develop, and share in the upside.
---	---	---

ABOUT PAUL MYSLINSKI

Paul is an operator and investor with experience building teams, managing complex operations, and executing long-term business plans. He founded The Ave Holdings to acquire and grow enduring service businesses while giving owners a thoughtful succession path. Paul takes an active approach, works alongside management teams, and maintains a regular on-site presence in the businesses he owns.

Interested in starting a confidential conversation?

Paul Myslinski | paulmyslinski@gmail.com | (404) 247-6290 | theaveholdings.com